

Alberta Food Bank Network Association

Together We Are Stronger

ALBERTA SHARE – DIVISION OF RESPONSIBILITIES

AN INITIATIVE OF THE ALBERTA FOOD BANK NETWORK ASSOCIATION

As Alberta Share is a large program involving many participants, the responsibilities of all involved are laid out below so as to avoid confusion.

Responsibilities of the Alberta Food Bank Association (AFBNA):

- Supply and deliver promotional material to food banks;
- Act as a central point of contact for retail sponsors and food banks;
- Promote Alberta Share on a provincial level to donors & retailers.

Responsibilities of Individual Food Banks:

- If desired, local food banks can approach independent retailers who want to participate in Alberta Share;
- Replenish and maintain Alberta Share materials at the store level;
- Take orders for additional Alberta Share material from retailers and place order with the AFBNA;
- Report store donation amounts annually to the AFBNA (year-end being Dec. 31);
- Purchase items needed for the food bank from the participating store using the store's accumulated donations with Alberta Share or share with the AFBNA how these funds were used;
- Show appreciation to local retailers for their support and participation in Alberta Share;
- Help coordinate revitalization launches to inform the public of the program and to ensure exposure;
- Pay a yearly membership fee or participation fee to the AFBNA for access to the Alberta Share program;
- Continue to uphold the criteria for participation in the program (CAFB Code of Ethics, AFBNA Food Safety Guidelines, etc. as per Alberta Share Policy).

Responsibilities of Retailers:

- Assign one staff member (i.e. Assistant Manager) to liaise with the identified member of the local food bank regarding questions, comments and ordering of additional materials.
- Provide local food banks with donation figures a minimum of twice a year.

For More Information:

Please contact the AFBNA office toll free at 1-866-251-2326 if you have any questions or concerns.

Alberta Food Bank Network Association

Physical Address
11508 120 Street
Edmonton, AB
T5G 2Y2

Phone: 866-251-2326 (Toll-Free)
Phone: 780-488-9719 (Local Edmonton)
Fax: 780-488-9716
Email: contact@afbna.ca
Web: www.afbna.ca

Mailing Address
PO Box 62061
Edmonton, AB
T5M 4B5